

Wesleyan Christian Academy Summer Reading 2026

“We read to know that we are not alone.” C.S. Lewis

All rising 9th–12th grade students are required to complete the summer reading assignment for their English course. Please locate your upcoming grade level and corresponding English class requirements below. Some books include specific editions or ISBN numbers. Please be sure to purchase the exact edition listed when ordering from a local bookstore or online retailer.

All reading and assignments should be completed before the first day of school. Students should also be prepared for an in-class assessment when classes resume on August 11. English teachers’ email addresses are provided below. Please contact the appropriate teacher with any questions regarding summer reading assignments or course expectations.
